

2006 Fall Conference
Atlanta Airport Marriott
6 & 7 September 2006

A quiet moment before the start of the conference.

(l-r) Rhonda Baldwin, Lea Arnau, Kathy O'Neill

Lea welcomes attendees and introduces Kay Burke, the keynote speaker September 6th. For the past 16 years, Kay has facilitated professional development workshops throughout the United States, Canada, and Australia; presented at numerous conferences including the Georgia Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (GASCD) and the National Staff Development Council (NSDC).

Kay customized her presentation to integrate Georgia's standards and benchmarks into checklists, rubrics and portfolios to create valid classroom assessments and tools that attendees left with to be used immediately in their districts and schools.

Great breakout sessions!

"Developing Internship Programs for School Leaders" breakout session

"High Quality Professional Learning and the SAI" breakout session

"Closing the Knowing-Doing Gap" GLISI breakout

"Orientation for New Professional Learning Directors" breakout

Good Food !!

Great Leadership !!

Atlanta Marriott